

Invest in Food & Beverage in Cape Town & the Western Cape September 2025

- Wesgro is part of the broader economic leadership team in Cape Town & the Western Cape
- Proudly South African
- Responsible for ensuring that the region is positioned to compete in a challenging global economy
- Our mandate
 - Differentiate Cape Town & the Western Cape as a leading regional economy
 - Increase foreign and domestic investment into Cape Town & the Western Cape
 - Grow Western Cape exports of goods and services
 - Grow leisure tourism consideration in international and local markets as well as growth in business events
 - Be a future-fit, relevant and trusted Tourism, Trade & Investment Promotion Agency (TTIPA)
- Publicly-funded with a private sector Board, +100 Staff
- Located in the nexus between
 - Government & Private Sector
 - Present & Future Economies
 - Local & Global Stakeholders

Key messages – Food & Beverages

- The Western Cape is a strategic springboard into the rest of the African continent, and beyond, linking businesses to high growth opportunities through preferential market access
- South Africa is the leading Agricultural exporting nation on the African continent, reaching a record US$13.7 billion in 2024, marking a 3% increase from the previous year. The Western Cape is the leading exporter of agricultural produce in South Africa
- The Food and Beverage sector is known for organised business across the sub-sectors, supportive government policy & regulation, high quality infrastructure and processing capacity e.g. wine, fruit canning, juicing, and beer
- The Western Cape's Food and Beverage sector is driven by innovation, sustainability and efficiency, which supports the cost competitiveness of the industry
- The Western Cape provides an enabling business environment with Wesgro providing support throughout the investment lifecycle

South Africa A vibrant, emerging market connecting Africa with the world

USD363 billion economy

Market of 63 million people

Africa's most industrialized and most diversified economy

50% of multinationals in Africa located in SA

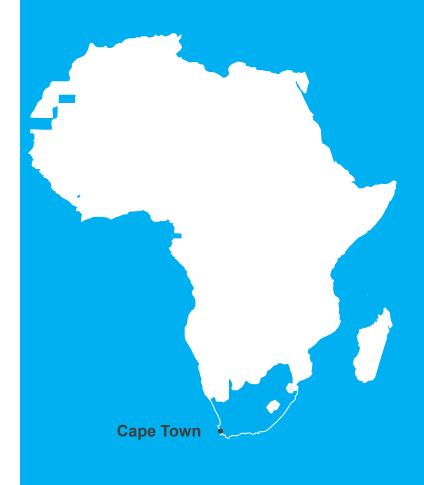

AfCFTA gateway with preferential access to African markets

Sophisticated financial services and banking sector

Deep bench of powerful & well managed corporations which via the JSE have the highest capitalization to GDP ratio in the world

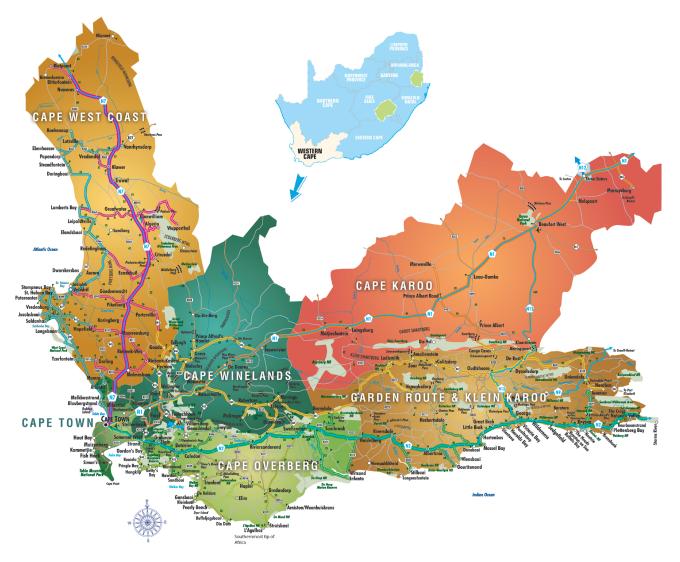

Western Cape A leading regional economy

- Unprecedented, multi-billion USD public & private sector infrastructure investment pipeline, reshaping the economic future
- Leading South Africa's job recovery
- Modern, services-led economy
- Growth sectors aligned to the future
- Leading tourism destination
- Institutional stability and good governance
- Global connectivity
- GFCF is rising, however needs spatial rebalancing

South Africa's most resilient & investable province

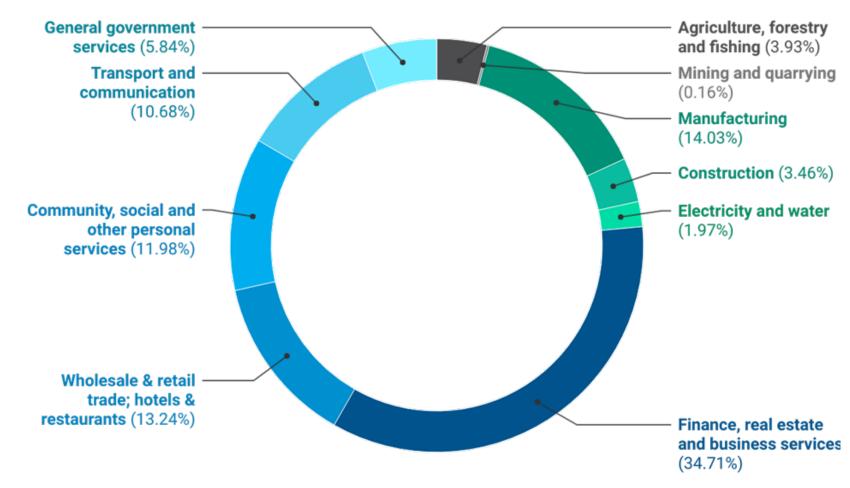

Western Cape Diverse & resilient economy with a well-developed services sector, 76% of GVA

Composition of GVA at constant 2015 prices (2024Q4), WC

USD51 billion regional economy

7.5 million people

Diversified & exportoriented

Food & Beverage Compelling reasons to invest in the Western Cape

Market Size & Growth Potential:

The World Bank places the total value of Africa's food and beverage market at USD313 billion, with expectations to reach USD1 trillion by 2030.

Export-Driven Ecosystem:

Well-established infrastructure supports high-volume exports to key markets.

Commitment to Sustainability

In 2010, South Africa introduced the world's first industry-wide sustainability seal, certifying wines from grape to glass. Issued by the Wine and Spirit Board, it ensures traceable, audited environmental standards, with each seal's credentials verifiable online.

Export Leadership:

The region accounts for over 52% of South Africa's primary agriculture, valued at US$ 3.76 billion, with Europe, the United States, and China as major trading partners.

Strategic Gateway to Africa:

With the implementation of the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA), the Western Cape is positioned as a springboard for expansion into Africa's consumer market.

Technology-Driven:

The adoption of smart farming, precision agriculture, and agri-processing automation is enhancing productivity, reducing costs, and ensuring quality compliance with global standards.

Rising Global Demand

9

The global food market is projected to reach US$ 9.12 trillion in 2024, growing at 6.7% annually.

Skilled Workforce & Innovation Hubs:

Cape Town and Stellenbosch are home to agri-tech and food-tech innovation clusters driving sector advancements.

A Well Governed Agri and Food & Beverage Industry

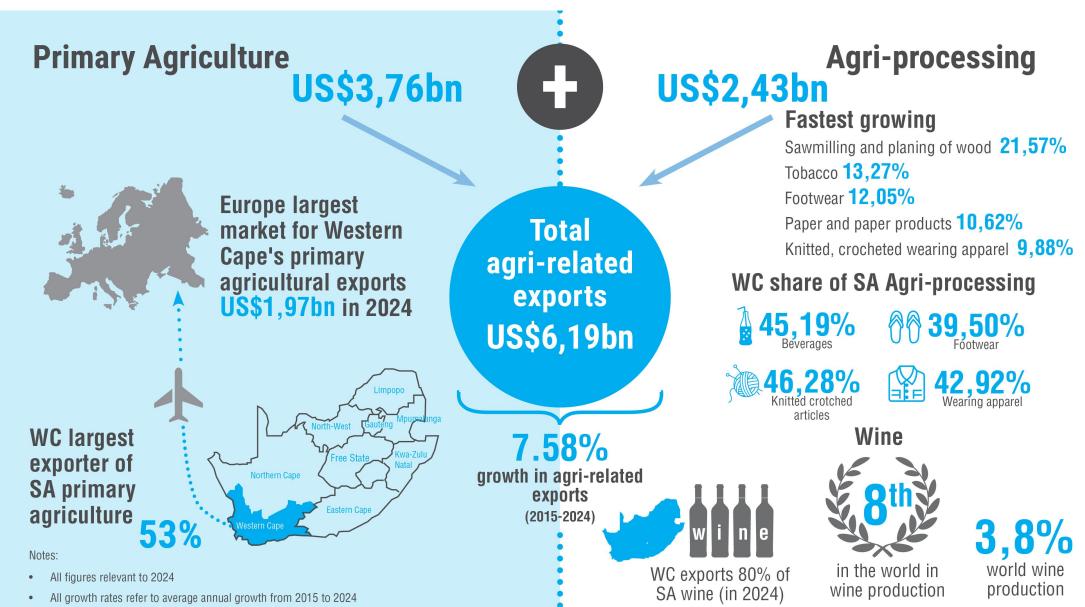

High Food and Beverage standards to meet local and global requirements including for export focused products.

Incentives
For additional information
scan here:

Food & Beverage Agricultural-related exports reached R113bn in 2024

Data Source: Quantec, 2025

Source: SAWIS, OIV, 2025

Food & Beverage Investment opportunities across multiple sub-sectors in the Western Cape

Primary Agriculture

- Horticultural Products
- Alternative High Value Crops
- Agri Tech

Food and Beverage (Incl Halal)

- Beverages (nonalcoholic and alcoholic)
- Canned fruit and veg
- Spices, Seasonings and Sauces
- Grain milling and Bakery products

Fishing & Aquaculture

- Both large-scale commercial fishing operations and smaller-scale fishing
- Fish processing
- Aquaculture

Food & Beverage Western Cape home to prominent global and local investors

Investment Facilitation How Wesgro supports investors

Entry establishment

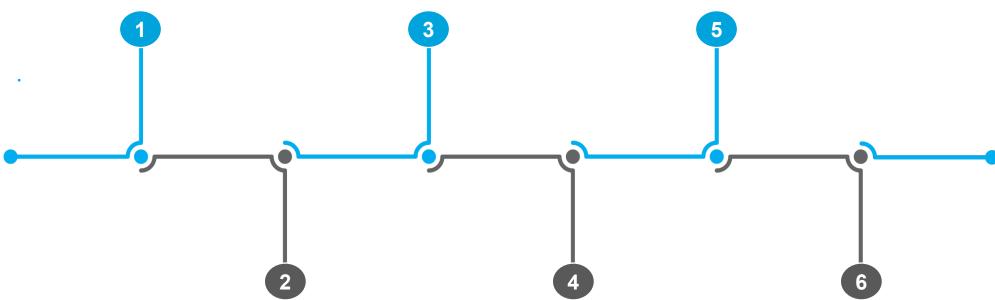

CIPC, Bank account, SARS, PAYE, Information: Doing business in the WC, Cost of property

Talent

Costs and skills, Recruitment agencies and Online marketplace

Investment incentives

DTIC incentive

Navigating the Regulatory environment

Immigration, Energy; Ports; Water; Logistics; Carbon intensity of our grid; Visas; Exchange control; Intellectual property; Access to capital; Green transition; Market entry issues

Office/ site location

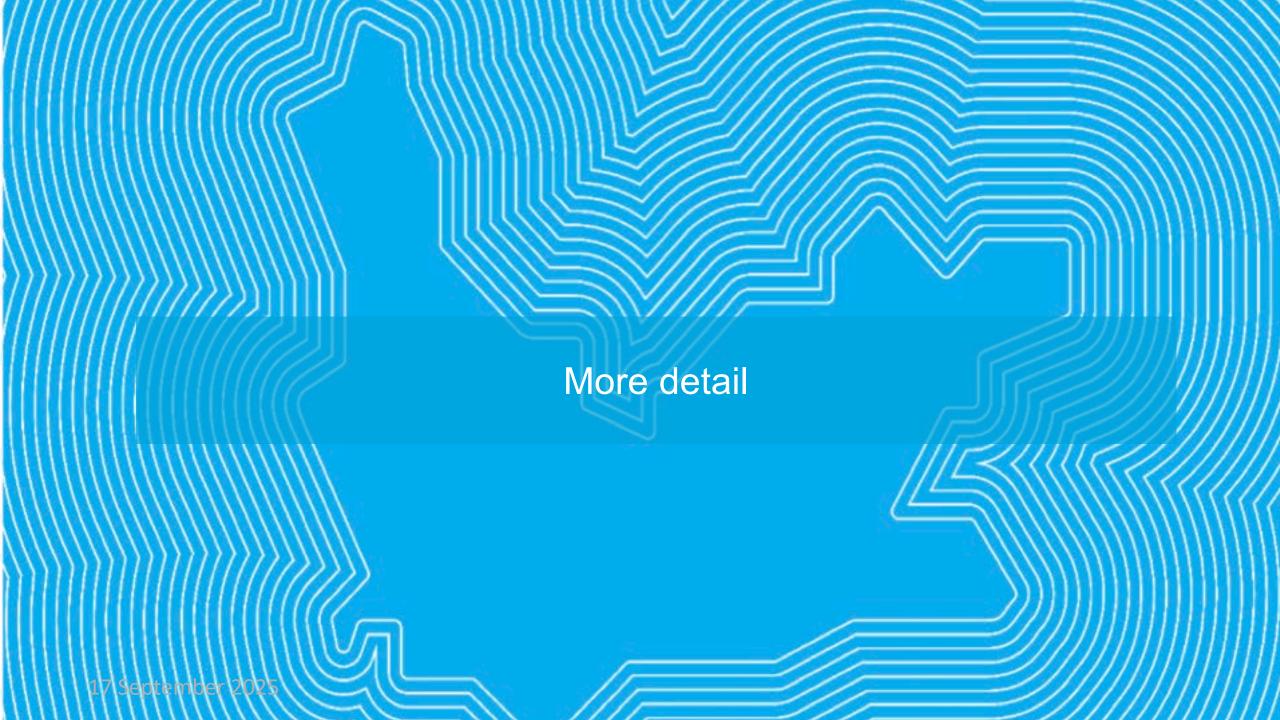

Co working or office rental; access to land

Strategic matchmaking

Access to market intelligence and industry specific information sharing and events. Introduction into value chain. Linkages to African markets

Primary Agriculture A consumer market in Africa of USD3.4 trillion presents significant opportunities for investors

Global market opportunity

- In 2022, the global value added by agriculture, forestry, and fishing reached USD 3.8 trillion, marking an 89% increase from 2000 levels.
- Agricultural output continues to grow but at a slowing pace compared to previous decades.
 Growth is mainly as a result of productivity improvements (yields per hectare)
- Agriculture has expanded more rapidly in the Global South than Global North (growth constant), mainly stimulated by rising world population, shifts in food demand, technological advancements, and policy changes.

Source : FAO

Africa/ Sub-Saharan African market opportunity

- The value of agriculture and fish production is expected to increase by 27% over the coming decade, an average annual gain of 2.2%
- Sub-Saharan Africa is a vast and diverse region that comprises 19% of the world's agricultural land, yet provides only 7% of global agricultural output value
- AfCFTA provides access to 1.3 billion consumers across a USD3.4 trillion market

South African market opportunity

- Over the past 5 and 10 years, the Western Cape's agricultural sector grew at an average annual rate of 2.5% and 2.7%, reaching R25.6 billion in 2023.
- The sector maintained its national share at 16% for agriculture and 21% for agriprocessing.

Source: Green Cape

Source: OECD-FAO Agricultural Outlook for Sub Saharan Africa 2024-2033)

Primary Agriculture A sector driven by strong export performance, diverse market access & commitment to innovation & sustainability

11

11

An export orientated sector with access to local and international markets

- Access to a strong regional market
- SADC includes 360 million people, with many large South African retail chains based in the region
- AfCFTA will provide access to 2.4 billion people once fully operational

Western Cape leads in the is supply of key crops

- SA is second largest exporter of citrus globally.
 The Western Cape leads in terms of soft citrus production and exported citrus to the value of R23 billion (2024)
- The Western Cape produces 88% of deciduous fruit in South Africa (stone fruit and pomefruit)

Sustainable Agricultural practices

- The Western Cape is known for advanced farming techniques, data-driven agriculture, and climatesmart practices, supported by provincial government.
- Opportunities for investment in remote sensing (drone technology) and undercover farming (shade netting and tunnels)

Investment opportunities in alternative crops given climatic changes

 Alternative crops now being developed in the Southern Cape – macadamias, almonds, avocados, kiwi fruit, almonds

Primary Agriculture Western Cape home to prominent global and local investors

Food & Beverage Growth driven by growing demand, with consumer spending valued at USD$ 19.96 billion in South Africa

Global market opportunity

- The global food market was projected to reach US$9.12 trillion in 2024, growing at 6.7% annually.
- The industry is seeing transformative shifts driven by evolving consumer preferences, technology, sustainability goals, and economic pressures.
- Some of the key investment trends:
 - Sustainable and Ethical Food Systems, FoodTech and AgriTech Innovation, Supply Chain Resilience and Traceability, Direct-to-Consumer (DTC) and E-commerce Models, M&A and Private Equity Consolidation, Alternative Packaging and Circular Economy.

Africa/ Sub-Saharan African market opportunity

- The World Bank places the total value of Africa's food and beverage market at USD313 billion, with expectations to reach USD1 trillion by 2030.
- The African middle class is anticipated to grow to 582 million by 2030, influencing consumption patterns towards premium and diverse food choices.
- AfCFTA provides access to 1.3 billion consumers across a USD3.4 trillion market

South African market opportunity

- Consumers spent approximately USD19.96 billion on food and alcoholic beverages, highlighting the country's significant domestic consumption (y/e Sept 2024)
- The South African food manufacturing industry generated approximately USD 13.2 billion in revenue (2023),a significant portion of the South African manufacturing sector, which contributes 13% to the country's Gross Domestic Product (GDP)
- The South African beverages market was valued at USD19.01 billion in 2023, with projections to grow to USD24.47 billion by 2028, reflecting a CAGR of 5.19%

Source: World Economic Forum, Euromonitor International

Source: OECD-FAO Agricultural Outlook for Sub Saharan Africa 2024-2033)

Food & Beverage An innovative and diverse group of sub-sectors serving growing markets, with further opportunities for investment

Access to a growing middleclass population

- A mix of African, European, and Asian culinary traditions creates a vibrant and unique food culture
- SADC includes 360 million people, with many large South African retail chains based in the region
- AfCFTA will provide access to 2.4 billion people once fully operational

A leader in the supply of food and beverages on the continent

 Leads in terms of horticultural produce in South Africa

11

11

The leading wine producing region on the African continent

An innovative industry in aware of global tastes and in trends

- An Innovative industry coupled with its responsiveness to changing consumer preferences and environmental challenges.
- Growing number of ecommerce platforms

An industry focused on meeting global sustainable requirements

 A strong focus on sustainability and lowering the carbon footprint given global demands

11

111 ш

Food & Beverages Western Cape home to prominent global and local investors

Fishing & Aquaculture Strong South African demand creates potential for growth of 18% p.a. by 2030

Global market opportunity

- Global aquaculture production reached a record 130.9 million tonnes, with 94.4 million tonnes of that being farmed fish, surpassing the 91 million tonnes caught in the wild (2022)
- The FAO projects that global aquaculture production will increase by 17% from 2022 to 2032.

Africa/ Sub-Saharan African market opportunity

- With Africa's population projected to double by 2050, the need for reliable, nutritious food sources like fish is critical
- Between 2022 and 2032, Africa's aquaculture production is expected to increase by 21%, the highest growth rate among all continents.
- Africa's aquaculture industry was valued at approximately USD2.8 billion, with projections indicating an increase to USD3.3 billion by 2050

South African market opportunity

- South Africa is a global leader in abalone aquaculture. The high value species remains the dominant contributor to the industry, accounting for around USD 56 million, which corresponds to 90% of the total industry value in 2022.
- South Africa's aquaculture sector is considered to be the most sophisticated on the continent. The sector produced 7 677,71 tons (2022, excluding seaweed). Also, the leading bivalve producer on the continent (mussels, oysters)
- SA Aquaculture production needs to grow by 18% pa by 2030 to generate enough supply to meet local demand

Source: Financial Times, FAO Source: : FAO Source: : DFFE, FAO

Fishing & Aquaculture A region that is a leader in aquaculture production, driven by innovation and adherence to international standards

The Western Cape leads in terms of production and expertise

- Leads in terms of Abalone, Mussel and Oyster production
- Contributes 80% to national aquaculture production

R&D and the policy environment

- South Africa has established aquaculture training programs and institutions.
- R&D: Constant innovation in breeding, feed efficiency, and environmental monitoring.
- Regulatory framework in place provides a sustainable industry compared to other African nations.

Meets international standards

- Well-established hatcheries, grow-out farms, and processing plants.
- Facilities that meet international standards, allowing export of products to the EU, Asia, and beyond.
- Strong biosecurity measures in place to manage disease and ensure product safety.

Unique Environmental Conditions

 Western Cape shellfish have distinctive profiles due to the cool Benguela current and unique phytoplankton content

Fishing & Aquaculture Western Cape home to prominent global and local investors

Contact us for more information

For further information on setting up or expanding your business in Cape Town & the Western Cape please contact Wesgro's Investment Team

- (9) 7th Floor, Media24 Building, 40 Heerengracht Street, Cape Town, 8000

Disclaimer

Wesgro has made every effort to ensure that the information in this publication is accurate. We provide said information without representation or warranty whatsoever, whether expressed or implied. It is the responsibility of users of this publication to satisfy themselves of the accuracy of the information contained herein. Wesgro cannot be held responsible for the contents of the publication in any way. © Wesgro, 2025